Notes: Per our conversation on July 5th, Donna and I have given a great deal of thought to Mr. Conrad J. Braun's actions. In addition to the information I gave on the application for restitution on June 20, 2003, the following is added. The pain caused by this man by his letters, threats and actions are immeasurable to myself, Donna Kirk and his children. Mr. Braun and his ex-wife divorced fifteen years ago. It is time for Mr. Braun to move forward. His adult children can have contact with whomever they choose.

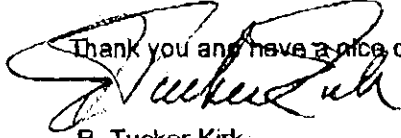

It is obvious that Mr. Braun's ability to deal with the reality of his divorce, the fact that his adult children can have a relationship with whomever they choose, and that he can not go around threatening and trying to intimidate people including the Johnston County Court Officials has to be evaluated.

Complete psychological evaluation, testing, counseling and treatment with medication if warranted is the highest priority. Next essential is no contact with me or Donna Kirk, period.

Probation has never been successful with Mr. Braun. He seems to be determined to "break the rules" as soon as they are set. After the judge sentences Mr. Braun, I would recommend a monetary fine for damages. This might have the benefit of forcing him to be a "productive member of society" vs. a destructive member. My personal recommendation is this fine be divided by four to Mr. Braun's three sons and myself (all have been victims) (Use Mr. Braun's $10,000 per incident for $40,000 total).

In addition, Mr. Braun should give community service to Johnson County for all the pain and suffering he has caused to the staff of the District Attorney's office and victim assistance department.

Thank you and have a nice day!
